2020 WSCFF Convention Resolution

1 2 3	SUBJECT: RESOLUTION #:	Encourage Diversity Hiring Practices 20-05
4 5 6 7 8	WHEREAS:	Civil rights and equality in the workplace are core elements woven into the fabric of the labor movement from its inceptionas Dr. Martin Luther King stated, "Injustice anywhere is a threat to justice everywhere'; and
9 10	WHEREAS:	Years later we still find ourselves in a battle over this very topic; and
11 12 13	WHEREAS:	The labor movement must do a better job of promoting diversity and inclusion within our memberships; and
14 15	WHEREAS:	We know that workforce diversity and inclusion will provide improved understanding of those we work for, with, and around; and
16 17 18 19	WHEREAS:	The WSCFF Executive Board encourages member locals to establish communication with their employers to look at ways their organizations can encourage stronger diversity in their hiring practices; and
20 21 22 23 24	WHEREAS:	Our fire departments have established many different hiring practices and the results of these practices many times do not reflect the diversity of the communities we serve; and
25 26 27	WHEREAS:	The early screening of candidates puts them through a testing process that is socially biased and financially prohibited; now therefore be it
28 29 30 31	RESOLVED:	That the WSCFF Executive Board ask member locals to meet with their employers to examine their hiring practices to see if there are steps that can encourage diversity and recruitment; and be it further
32 33 34	RESOLVED:	That some examples of these steps to encourage diversity and recruitment may be but are not limited to:
35 36 37 38 39		 Establish a diversity hiring committee of both labor and management representatives. Examine the new hire testing process and look for ways to encourage diversity within the process.
40 41 42		- Establish a recruitment team to actively seek ways to get into the community, visit events like cultural and job fairs, speak at service clubs and educational programs, and look for other way to encourage involvement.
43 44 45 46 47		 Look for ways to encourage equal opportunities to those who may not have access or resources. Establish a fund or scholarship program that will give financial access to those underrepresented in our communities; and be it further
