Initiatives

I-2117: Repeal of the Climate Commitment Act (CCA)

- The CCA created a market-based cap-and-invest program to require the state's largest polluters to pay for greenhouse gas pollution
- The CCA provides historic investments for decarbonization and climate resilience
- The program has generated $2+ billion dollars

Washington State Projects

Initiatives

I-2124: Repeal of the Long-Term Care Act (WA Cares)

- WA Cares will grow the number of unionized home care, nursing home, and other long-term care jobs across Washington.
- Benefits are now portable out of state if you relocate outside of Washington
- 70% of us will need help with daily living activities because of a serious injury, illness, disease, or other challenge that can happen at any age.

WA Cares pays up to $36,500* for personal home care, including:

Family Care

Wheelchairs

Medical Equipment

Home Modifications

*Benefit amount grows over time

Initiatives

I-2109: Repeal of the capital gains tax

- A repeal would cut $900 million/year from early learning, childcare, and public schools
- It would eliminate public services to provide tax breaks to the ultra-wealthy with over $250,000 in capital gains
- The repeal would impact the wealthiest .02% of Washingtonians.

In addition to candidates in the November 2024 election, you will also be able to vote on some statewide ballot measures.

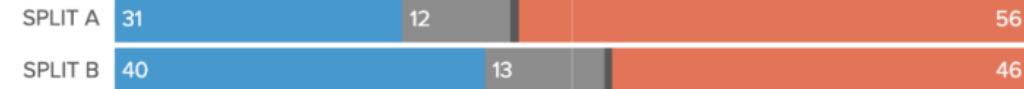

How would you vote if _____ were on the ballot and the election were held today?

● Yes ● Not sure ● Would not vote ● No

Political Endorsements

Committee on Political Education (COPE) Convention

- Saturday, May 18 at the Machinists District 751 Hall in Seattle.
- Delegates representing unions from across the state will vote on WSLC endorsements for congressional, statewide, state legislative, and judicial candidates, plus state ballot measures.
- By WSLC Constitution, the council's endorsements require a two-thirds majority vote.

Cycle of Engagement

The WSLC is committed to growing independent political power that isn't tied to a specific party or ideology but centers on the needs of the working class

Path to Power

Labor Neighbor

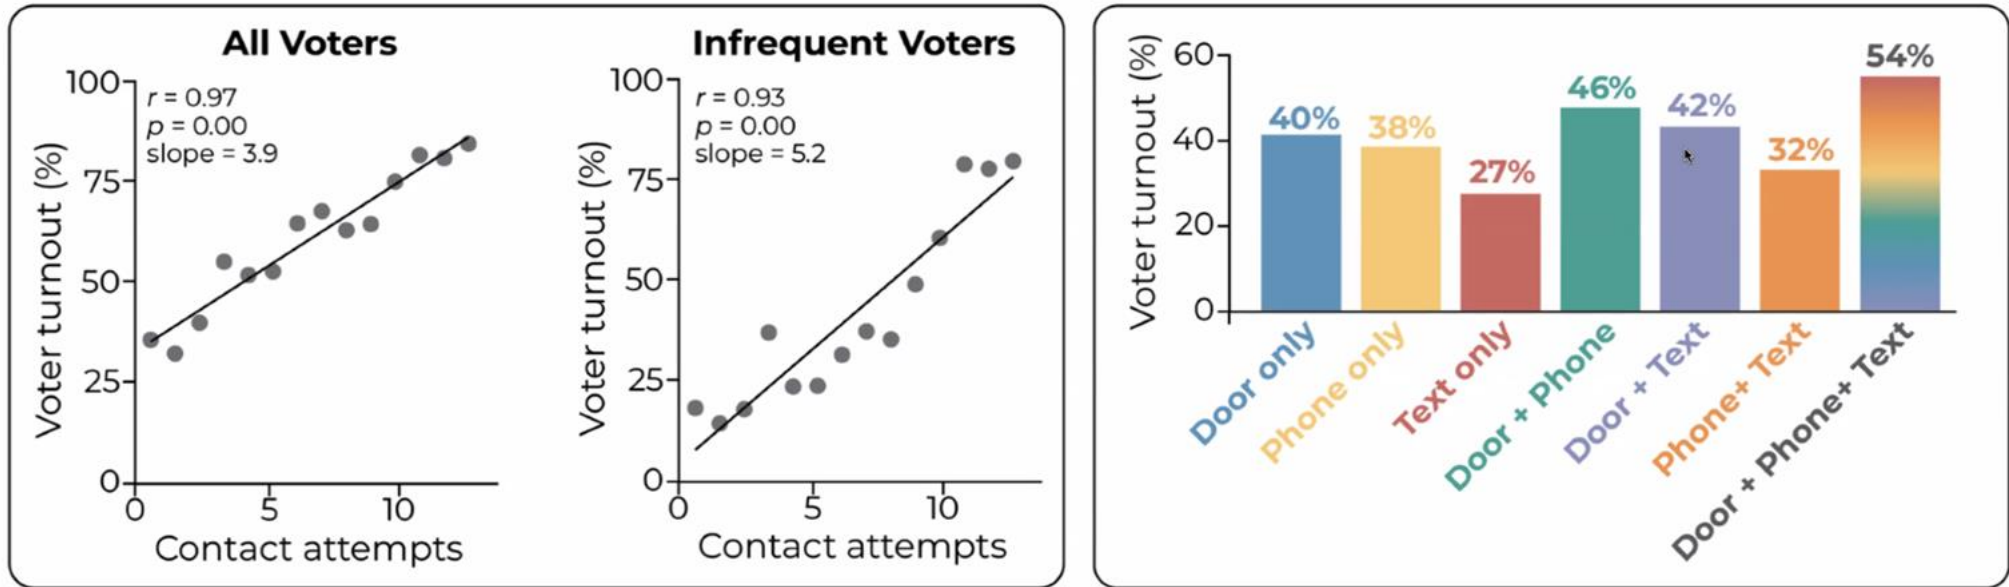

Objectives

- Educate union members and their families about endorsed candidates and the reasons they have earned our labor support.
- Communicate through targeted digital advertising and mail pieces.
- Mobilize union members through direct voter contact – doorbelling, phone banking, and text banking.
- Meaningfully impact election results and secure pro-labor wins.

Labor Neighbor

Repeated contact increases voter turnout, particularly among infrequent voters
